Worth trolling spoon blades are now available in an exclusive and original Worth Hex pattern. This pattern was designed and created to provide the highest light-reflecting surface possible. Covering the entire spoon, this pattern sends out laser-like light reflections in literally hundreds of directions at once, making it one of the most visible patterns ever developed. You need to see this pattern to believe it! Consider having us create a custom finish or accent stripes. This spoon should definitely be a weapon in your product line for big game fish or trolling.
